

Direct Deposit Account Format

Premier Community Credit Union supports direct deposit through the NACHA electronics payment systems.

Here is the information members need to set up direct deposit to your accounts at Premier Community Credit Union.

Routing and Transit Number 321177887

You will need to go to your company's or district's payroll or HR office for a direct deposit form. Complete the form and return it back to your payroll or HR office for processing.

For direct deposit to checking account, you will need to get a copy of your check and the checking account number is at the bottom that starts with 77...

If you have any questions, please come to any one of our service centers or call us at (209) 235-1100.

For deposits to the Savings Account:

Please provide the Routing and Transit Number 321177887, and the 6 digit member account number. Please also to be careful to specify it is your savings account.